

Keith A. Scragg

Director, Region II

Keith A. Scragg was appointed Region Director of Selective Service's Region II in January 2004. Headquartered in Smyrna, GA, just outside of Atlanta, Region II covers 13 southeastern and south central states, plus the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the U. S. Virgin Islands.

Mr. Scragg's association with the Agency began in April 1980, as a Reserve Forces Officer in Florida. He returned to active duty at the Region II Headquarters in October 1984. During the last three years of his tour in Region II, he served as the Deputy Region Director. In February 1991, he was transferred to the Selective Service System National Headquarters in Washington DC, where he worked in the Office of Operations. During his last five months at National Headquarters, he served as Executive Assistant to the Acting Director of the Selective Service System. Mr. Scragg served as the Region II Director from August 1994 until his retirement, with the rank of Colonel, from the U.S. Air Force in May 2002. He was appointed as the Deputy Region Director in July 2002, a position he held until his current position as Region Director.

Mr. Scragg's military career began when he was commissioned in May 1972 from The Citadel, Charleston, SC, where he earned a bachelor of science in business administration. After Personnel Officers' School at Keesler AFB, Mississippi, he was assigned to Loring AFB, Limestone, ME, with the Strategic Air Command. In 1976 he was reassigned as the Processing Officer at the Dallas, TX, Military Entrance Processing Station. In 1979 he returned to the private sector in Titusville, FL. His professional military education includes completion of Squadron Officers School, Air Command and Staff College, and the Air War College.

Mr. Scragg's awards include the Legion of Merit, Defense and Air Force Meritorious Service Medals, Joint Service and Air Force Commendation Medals, and the Selective Service System Meritorious, Exceptional, and Distinguished Service Awards. He has completed 90 percent of the requirements for his master's degree in administration from Central Michigan University.
